Important notice. This document is a comprehensive model policy prepared for a diversified industrial business of the type of fertilizer, chemicals, energy and foods groups operating in Pakistan (for example, groups similar in profile to Engro). The name Zenith Industrial Group Limited is a placeholder and should be replaced with your company's legal name. Statutory references reflect the framework commonly applicable in Pakistan, but laws, thresholds, provincial variations and rates change. Figures shown as indicative (such as credit bands, leave days and interest rates) are examples and must be tailored. This template does not constitute legal advice, and must be reviewed and adapted by qualified legal counsel before adoption or use.

Part A - General Terms and Conditions

Governing all commercial dealings, supply of goods and services, and engagement with the Company

A.1 Definitions and Interpretation

- A.1.1 In this document: "Company" means Zenith Industrial Group Limited and its subsidiaries and affiliates; "Counterparty" means any customer, distributor, dealer, supplier, contractor, consultant or other person dealing with the Company; "Goods" means fertilizers, chemicals, energy products, foods, packaging and any other products supplied; "Services" means services supplied by or to the Company; "Agreement" means an order, contract or engagement incorporating these Terms; "Applicable Law" means all laws, rules, regulations and directions of competent authorities in force in the Islamic Republic of Pakistan and, for cross-border dealings, the relevant foreign jurisdiction.
- A.1.2 Headings are for convenience only. Words in the singular include the plural. References to a statute include amendments and re-enactments. "Including" means including without limitation.
- A.1.3 In case of conflict, the order of precedence is: (i) a written agreement signed by authorised signatories of both parties; (ii) the Company's written purchase order or sales confirmation; (iii) these Terms; (iv) any other document.

A.2 Scope and Application

- A.2.1 These Terms apply to every quotation, offer, order, sale, purchase and engagement by or with the Company, and prevail over any terms proposed by the Counterparty unless expressly accepted in writing by an authorised officer of the Company.
- A.2.2 No employee, agent or representative has authority to vary these Terms except through written amendment signed under the Company's delegation of authority.
- A.2.3 Part B (Recruitment Policy) applies to employment and engagement of personnel. Part C (Trade Terms Policy) applies to trade partners, distributors, dealers, direct customers and suppliers, and forms part of these Terms where referred to in an Agreement.

A.3 Formation of Contract

- A.3.1 A quotation is an invitation to treat, valid for the period stated (or 15 days if none is stated), and may be withdrawn or revised before acceptance.
- A.3.2 A binding Agreement arises only when the Company issues a written order confirmation or purchase order, or the Counterparty's order is accepted in writing or by dispatch of Goods.
- A.3.3 Specifications, drawings, samples and descriptions are approximate unless expressly stated to be binding. The Counterparty is responsible for the accuracy of the information it provides.
- A.3.4 Electronic communications and signatures are valid and binding to the extent permitted by the Electronic Transactions Ordinance, 2002.

A.4 Prices and Taxes

- A.4.1 Prices are stated in Pakistani Rupees (PKR) unless otherwise specified and are exclusive of sales tax, federal excise duty, withholding taxes, customs duties, freight, insurance and other levies, all of which are borne by the Counterparty unless the Agreement states otherwise.
- A.4.2 Where prices are regulated or notified by a government authority, the notified price applies and prevails over any quotation.
- A.4.3 The Company may adjust prices before delivery to reflect changes in raw-material cost, exchange rates, taxes, duties or freight. Where the change exceeds 5% the Counterparty may cancel the unfulfilled portion by written notice within three (3) working days.
- A.4.4 Withholding tax shall be deducted as required by law and a valid tax certificate furnished within 15 days of deduction.

A.5 Payment

- A.5.1 Payment shall be made in cleared funds by the due date in the Agreement or in Part C, without set-off, counterclaim or deduction except as required by law.
- A.5.2 Overdue amounts attract a late payment charge as set out in Part C, accruing daily until actual payment. The Company may suspend deliveries and withhold credit while any amount is overdue.
- A.5.3 Disputed invoices must be notified in writing within seven (7) days of receipt with reasons; the undisputed portion remains payable on time.

A.6 Delivery, Title and Risk

- A.6.1 Delivery dates are estimates. The Company is not liable for delay caused by events beyond its reasonable control, including plant shutdowns, gas or power curtailment, transport disruption, port congestion or government action.
- A.6.2 Delivery terms follow Incoterms 2020 as stated in the Agreement; where none is stated, domestic sales are ex-works or ex-warehouse.
- A.6.3 Risk in Goods passes on delivery in accordance with the agreed delivery term. Title passes only upon receipt of full payment; until then the Counterparty holds the Goods as bailee, keeps them identifiable and insured, and shall not pledge or encumber them.
- A.6.4 The Counterparty shall inspect Goods on delivery and record any shortage or visible damage on the delivery challan or transporter's receipt.

A.7 Quality, Inspection and Warranty

- A.7.1 The Company warrants that Goods conform to the agreed specification at the time of delivery and are of merchantable quality, if stored and handled in accordance with the Company's instructions and applicable safety data sheets.
- A.7.2 Claims for quality defects must be notified in writing within 14 days of delivery (or the shelf life, if shorter), with batch number, quantity and samples retained under proper conditions. Joint sampling may be conducted, and an independent laboratory accepted by both parties shall be final on quality disputes.
- A.7.3 The Company's sole obligation for proven non-conforming Goods is, at its option, to replace, repair, re-supply or credit the price. All other warranties, express or implied, to the extent permitted by law, are excluded.
- A.7.4 Where the Counterparty supplies Goods or Services to the Company, it warrants they conform to the specification, are new, free from defects and encumbrances, and comply with Applicable Law and the Company's quality and HSE requirements. The Company may reject non-conforming supplies and recover related costs.

A.8 Intellectual Property

- A.8.1 All trademarks, trade names, logos, brand identities, formulations, know-how, designs, software and documentation of the Company remain its exclusive property. No licence is granted except a limited, revocable, non-transferable right to use the brands in approved form solely to promote and sell Goods.
- A.8.2 Any deliverables created specifically for the Company under an Agreement vest in the Company on payment, and the Counterparty shall obtain all necessary waivers from its personnel.
- A.8.3 The Counterparty shall not register, or apply to register, any mark, domain or name confusingly similar to those of the Company.

A.9 Confidentiality and Data Protection

- A.9.1 Each party shall keep confidential all non-public commercial, technical, financial and personal information received from the other, use it only for the purpose of the Agreement, and disclose it only to personnel and advisers who need to know and are bound by equivalent duties, or as compelled by law or a regulator.
- A.9.2 This obligation survives for five (5) years after termination and indefinitely for trade secrets.
